

Whoa, Friend -- Politico just reported on Vice President Pence's plan to campaign against Joe so he can keep Mitch McConnell in control of the Senate:

"Pence said he would campaign against Sen. Joe Donnelly... 'I expect we're going to spend a fair amount of time in [Indiana].'"

Hoosiers know better than anyone exactly how much damage Mike Pence can cause. Let's not forget that as governor, Pence signed a discriminatory law that ruined our reputation while costing Indiana millions of dollars. And who could forget the time he turned down $80 million in pre-K funds? Now, as Vice President, he even cast the tie-breaking vote to confirm Betsy DeVos!

We thought we'd gotten rid of him -- but now he's coming back with plans to attack Joe.

I'm not about to let him do that -- what about you, Friend? Team Donnelly is setting a goal of raising $10,000 in the next two days to show Pence immediately that if he messes with Joe, he's messing with all of us. Will you chip in?
