

Essay Competition

To mark the 10th anniversary of the Competition and
Markets Authority

What are the benefits of a strong competition and/or consumer protection regime, and how can the CMA better deliver them?

Please write 1000-1200 words for a general, non-academic audience in response to this question

The judging panel will consist of:

- Sarah Cardell
(Chief Executive, CMA)
- Amelia Fletcher
(Professor of Competition Policy at Norwich Business School and Deputy Director at the Centre for Competition Policy)
- Richard Whish
(Emeritus Professor of law at King's College, London)
- Mike Walker
(Chief Economist, CMA)

Prizes

Multi-store vouchers to the value of

Winner: £500

Two runners-up: £200 each

The winner and runners-up will be announced at our 10th anniversary event in London in late April. They will be invited to attend: travel and accommodation expenses will be covered.

This competition is open to current students (of any subject) and those who have graduated within the last 2 years.

Please submit your entries, including contact details, and any queries to essaycompetition@cma.gov.uk

The deadline for submissions is 11th March 2024 and the winner will be notified by 4th April 2024